HOW TO FIND US

From the M6 junction 32 (8 to 10 minutes driving). Leave the M6 at junction 32 briefly onto the M55 leaving at junction 1 and follow the signs for GARSTANG. At the first set of lights turn RIGHT following signs for GOOSNARGH and LONGRIDGE. Pass through the village of Goosnargh staying on the main road. As you leave the village at the far side you come to a right hand bend. Head straight up the small country lane called 'Camforth Hall Lane.' You will now notice 'Horn's Inn' on the sign posts. The inn is approximately 2 miles up this lane on the left.

Take a walk through the heart of the beautiful Lancashire countryside ...then take a well earned rest at an award winning coaching inn to savour a taste of Lancashire and local real ales

Get INN STEP with new local walks starting from Ye Horn's

Ye Horn's has launched two new walks which take in the stunning countryside around the inn. It's the perfect way to get outdoors and soak in the views before returning to Ye Horn's for a taste of the best local ales and produce.

Starting from the Ye Horn's car park there are two route options. The shorter route takes around one and half hours, with the longer route taking three hours. They are both relatively easy walks with no major hill climbs..so suitable for people of all ages.

For those of you who fancy getting 'Inn Step' with the local area we've included some Ye Horn's Inn vouchers for you to use when you get back for a well earned treat.

Producer Spotlight - Reg Johnson & Bud Swarbrick

Did you know that Ye Horn's was one of the first restaurants to serve what is now the world famous Goosnargh Duck from our neighbours Johnson & Swarbrick?

Reg Johnson grew up on a Fylde dairy farm before moving to Goosnargh where he started to supply poultry at Cleveleys Market. He decided to supply local restaurants and today his duck appears on the menu of top chefs all over the world. Reg puts his success down to two key things; good breeding and good welfare.

To this day Goosnargh duck remains one of the most popular dishes at Ye Horn's. Served with a crisp skin and homemade apple sauce it's succulent and delicious.

Strawberry & Blueberry Eton Mess

Serves 4

Ingredients:

250g British strawberries

250g blueberries

200ml thick yoghurt

150ml whipping cream

1 tbsp strawberry liqueur or cassis

6 small meringues, crushed

Method:

1. Gently mix the berries in a bowl: set a handful aside for the garnish
  2. Whip the cream until it stands in peaks, fold in the yoghurt and liqueur then add the crushed meringue and berries
  3. Pile into serving glasses and garnish with the reserved berries
- Serve straight away
